WHO

Kaidhyn, like other stroke survivors, will have many physical, emotional and cognitive problems. Kaidhyn has braces on both legs. His left arm is in a cast for constraint therapy. He is deaf in his right ear and has trouble eating and speaking.

WHAT

Proceeds go to establish a non-profit organization to benefit children in Indiana, Kentucky, and Ohio affected by strokes, cerebral palsy, and hemiplegia; for research, to educate, communicate, provide monetary support and necessities such as needed braces, family retreats and trips to the Special Olympics.

Hi, my name is Kaidhyn. I am a stroke survivor. I had a massive stroke on the left side of my brain causing right side paralysis.
